Thoughts on "The Passion of Christ" Bob Faulkner

Everyone just had to see it. I remember the hype, the rush to the Cinemas. Even to this day many believers consider this film a must-see. I am asking God's people to take a second look at this, and any "Christian" movie, originating in the Hollywood style. Are we sure that we want those who trust us to be influenced by images and words that claim to be from God but in fact are from a visionary of Rome? Here is the product of an investigation I carried out regarding "The Passion of Christ" . I think you will be a bit surprised.
