The journey through life is sometimes a mystery as we travel through different stages trying to figure out our purpose for being on this planet. This book will take you on an exciting trip through the mind of God and openly reveal what God thinks of humanity. A revealing look at Gods desires for the human race, his passion to help us through life's challenges, his personality as both God and friend, and his unending love for his creation. Is he real? If God does exist, what does he stand for? What does he care about the most? What does he think about me? More importantly, does he think about me? The Journey answers these questions and many more through a creative description of the attributes of the Creator and the power he wields. Take a walk through these pages and you will find that life is a Journey best traveled with a friend who can help you along the way. Occasionally the need to understand necessitates the need to go back to the beginning. Sometimes we need to go back to the point where it all started and examine the things that matter most What if an idea surfaces that causes us to rethink our beliefs and quite possibly restructure our lives? Is there such an idea? As you read through the following pages consider for just a moment the possibility that He does exist and imagine for a moment what life would be like without Him.
