Spoken Russian for Students and Travelers Charles E. Kany

The purpose of this book is to offer easy but adequate conversational Russian to students of the language and to prospective travelers. The book may be considered a basic conversational text not only for beginners with no knowledge of Russian, but also for those who already possess a foundation. A skeleton grammar is appended, and footnoted references to it will be found throughout the text. The Appendix is followed by a list of verbs used or mentioned in the book.
