Finding Home (Winds of Change) (Volume 3) Stacy Hawkins Adams

What happens when you're so desperate for things to go your way, that anything goes? Jessica Wilson Arnold is a superstar professional speaker whose husband and friends fret about the strain of her ambitions, while she hungers for more. When a medical crisis and some poor decisions bring her fast-track success to a screeching halt, Jessica is forced to admit that her life isn't as perfectly packaged as advertised. Her quest to restore her health and prioritize what matters most leads her to a crossroad. Will she revive her faith and learn to love herself and others more deeply, or cling to a path that threatens disaster? Jessica's desperate choices and gripping fear will take readers on a literary ride that's both shocking and familiar, mostly leaving them rooting for her to win big – with family, faith and finding her way.
