This is a petition from the colonial surveyor For this petition in LOUIS CHOLLET, received by that Chamber in September, full, sco Extracts, No. 179 asking a grant of land in the river Pomeroun or on the coast west of it. The petitioner had given attention, he said, to the west coast as far as the Pomeroun, and to that river itself, on account of their agricultural promise, and had embodied his observations in a memorial which he enclosed, together with a map, made by himself, beginning at the creek of Mahaicony and ending with the boundary between the Spaniards and the colonies of the State, in which map the river of Pomeroun and the neighboring districts were portrayed. Chollet's memorial of this date has not been found, but there is a later memorial by him on the opening of the Pomeroun, transmitted by the Governor-General in 1794.
