Just Plain Becky Becky McGurrin

Becky and her husband were committed to providing a haven in raising their four children in the fear of God. Their lovely neighborhood was increasingly dangerous and running counter to their commitment. What should they do? Where could they go? Where would He lead? How would this affect the relationships they had forged with family and the many friends they had made in the churches they attended in their spiritual journey? Little would they know that God would lead them among the plain people. Their journey was sometimes perplexing, but there was much happiness and laughter in their many new experiences.
