The Alligator Named Ally Leah

The Alligator Named Ally is a delightful tale about an alligator named Ally who has just moved to a place called Forest Creek with her family. Ally had heard so many wonderful things about the countless animals she would have to play with in Forest Creek, and she was sure she would be happy in her new neighborhood. But soon after they moved into the forest, she discovers that the other children in Forest Creek are not as friendly as she thought they would be, and Ally is left to play all by herself. Read how Ally finds a way to make new friends with the help of a big red ball.
