The Invisible Father. Louis Bouyer

In this wide-ranging yet coherent book, Bouyer both explores mankind's ineradicably religious nature and traces the paths of God's self-revelation that culminate in Christ and the proclamation of the Father. Chapter by chapter, the reader is led to a wide and deep vision of humanity's search for God and God's for humanity. This book faces fearlessly the deepest questions being put to Christians, and to humanity as a whole, at the dawn of the third millennium.
