How to Kill A Superhero: A Gay Bondage Manual (Gold Apocalypse) (Volume 1) Pablo Greene

This book is the definitive series on superhero fetish for fans of erotica and kinky fiction. STORY Music roars inside Fortress nightclub. Roland dances into the night, hoping to find a brief escape from his professional life at Kansas City's Arkum Hospital. That night he bumps into Rick, a jet-setting executive who shares his fetish for superheroes in bondage. Together Roland and Rick travel into a world of masks, rope, and sexual slavery. That is, until monstrous transformations start raging through Roland's body and mind, and their game of superhero fetish takes a very bad turn. Time is running out, and Roland is losing control. The only thing that can help him understand the danger he faces is a rare book that can reveal the mysteries that lie beyond the borders of pain and bondage. How to Kill a Superhero dares to visit the darkest corners of the superhero genre, where horror, science fiction, and sex converge. This tale takes readers on a ride into the erotic they won't soon forget.
