Save Me From Myself: Saving Me (Volume 1) Dolly Grand

"I held the black notebook against my chest, like it was the most precious thing I owned. It was, after all, the person who I was. The dark covers protected the true me. The words that described me the best, painted the person who I really was." After Theodore Williams came out as gay to his best friend, his life took a turn for the worse. Four months later, he is at his breaking point, and struggling to continue with his everyday life. He is in desperate need of a savior, but an unlikely hero steps forward...
