Everybody wants to connect. Each person has a desire for an experience of transcendence, love, or a bigger life. Some call that pull evolution, and for some it's a matter of spiritual development. What if it's both? The way to embrace the challenge of existence is to see your present material circumstances as finite examples of an infinite nature. We call this exercise "Branching In," because we are working from many individual manifestations to one timeless Truth. You don't need anything extra to be who you already are. We follow it through branch and trunk back to root, and use that expanded awareness as the seed of something new.
