Caleb Corgi, outstanding student and part-time private investigator, senses that something is amiss in Corgiville. He has noticed a sudden increase in the number of raccoons in town. They claim they are tourists just passing through, but Caleb feels secrecy and conspiracy in the air. And when Babe, Corgiville's prize rooster, is reported kidnapped, the raccoons are overheard arguing over the best way to stuff and roast a large fowl. The town is in a frenzy! Caleb knows he must find and rescue Babe, but how?

Tasha Tudor, the revered storyteller and illustrator, has invented another story about the wonderful denizens of Corgiville. The action is brisk, the details of both text and art charming and vivid. Here is book that both adults and children will want to read and savor repeatedly.
