For U.S. History survey courses.

This package includes MyHistoryLab®

See history. Explore history. Understand history.

Visions of America: A History of the United States uses images as primary historical evidence to bring history to life for a generation of visual learners. Emphasizing how key choices and competing visions of America shaped our nation's past, authors Jennifer Keene, Saul Cornell, and Edward O'Donnell help students realize that history is not just an endless list of names and dates, but the fascinating tale of human experience. In addition to updated visuals, the Third Edition includes chapter-level learning objectives tied to a set of learning outcomes for the course, which help instructors evaluate and demonstrate student achievement.

Enhance learning with MyHistoryLab

MyHistoryLab for the U.S. History survey course extends learning online to engage students and improve results. Media resources with assignments bring concepts to life, and offer students opportunities to practice applying what they've learned. Please note: this version of MyHistoryLab does not include an eText.

NOTE: The print component included in this package is a Pearson Books a la Carte edition: a convenient, three-hole-punched, loose-leaf text. In addition to the flexibility offered by this format, Books a la Carte editions offer students great value, as they cost significantly less than a bound textbook.

Visions of America: A History of the United States, Third Edition is also available via REVEL™, an interactive learning environment that enables students to read, practice, and study in one continuous experience.
