Examining the Big Picture: Evaluating Existentialism, Truth and The Meaning of Life Richard Wolf

A compact philosophy book that deals with life's most crucial questions: "Who am I?" "Why am I here?" "Where am I going?" The author examines these penetrating "BIG PICTURE" questions through the thoughts and ideas of four prominent existential thinkers: Soren Kierkegaard, Friedrich Nietzsche, Jean-Paul Sartre, and C. S. Lewis. These writers take the individual reader on a pilgrimage of self-examination that will ultimately lead one to a life of contemplation and authenticity. In the end, the reader will come away from this philosophical journey fully aware of the definite and direct correlation between individual meaning and universal truth.
