Roman Carmichael is desperate to find a bride. He writes to his Aunt, believing that she is the perfect person to help him find the perfect wife. When Gabriella, Aunt Eddie's chosen bride, rolls into Valentine, Roman's Western hometown, he is shocked to discover she cannot hear a word he says. What was Aunt Eddie thinking? Will this practical man learn to speak with his heart instead of his mouth, and finally let his deaf bride know how he feels? Or will their love remain forever lost in silence. The Valentine Brides collection is a celebration of the miracle of love and faith, set in the rugged romance of the old West.
