These interactive games were developed and perfected by an experienced Christian education director who has worked with children across the country. All games may be used on a flannel or Velcro board. Patterns and instructions for making the game pieces out of felt are included. Teachers may use their own Bible-based questions to correspond with their Sunday school lesson, or they may use the sample groups of questions included in the book. A game board, felt pieces, biblical questions, and enthusiastic children are all you need to set fun learning in motion.
