The President (The Hobo Chronicles) (Volume 2) Johnny T. Noctor

When The Hobo tries to get justice for his fractured skull and brain damage caused by a coward punch, the Hobart police refuse to arrest the perpetrator. Instead the cops relentlessly try to entrap the innocent victim, giving him no choice but to sleep in the woods on the mainland. In order to stay sober, The Hobo campaigns in four Australian States as a preferred party of AA, and spars in the hardest gyms with great Australian fighters. Even when fit and sober, he realizes that without the puppet master, he'll never get to fight in Australia ever again. Desperate to earn money for his wife and baby, and not wanting to fall off the wagon, the homeless boxer gives this promoter one last chance to do the right thing. All the while, America's great, lightning-fast fighter flies to Australia, straight into the eye of a Hobo tornado.
