I Breathe You & Become High is an urban romance novel about that love thing we all yearn for. Two struggling African American artists, Zaida (an aspiring authoress) & Ziulyn (an aspiring painter) share an instant connection & fall into a beautiful & almost flawless love situation. It was magic from the door. Zaida takes a business trip to DC for a convention & returns home to some interesting news. In this unpredictable world sometimes the ideal decisions aren't always the easiest. Sometimes your circumstances are what catapults you into your dream. Sometimes in life, your dreams change. Zaida is your regular (or is she) pretty girl who is trying to figure out this whole love thing, all while bartending at the Peacock. She deals with your usual pressures; mostly within herself but that's life right? That's usually life telling you to be greater but of course we learn that later, now don't we? Zaida learns that love will always be love but 'when that jones comes down, it can be a muthafukka', like Savon in the popular film Love Jones states. Zaida is in love with Ziulyn & he's in love with her. Then there's her girls Yazmin (the fearless, artsy girl), Charlie (the laid back, makeup artist) & Rayna (the sophisticated, intellect). Don't forget Manny's smooth ass & Marcus the witty, persistent guy. Take a journey with Zaida as she ventures through this alleged love thing. I mean love is the cure to everything right? Inhale love & exhale anything else. This, my friends is, I Breathe You & Become High.
