The world's greatest composer, his personal story finally told. The novel you will never forget...

Saint Petersburg, 1893.

In the dimly lit salon of a private house, Tchaikovsky watches as an illegal jury considers his alleged crimes of licentious behavior. He hastily agrees to abide by their order to swallow poison rather than face allegations in the official courts, but is terrified by the reality of the situation. As he considers how his life has led him to this point, a dark tale emerges.

Tchaikovsky's immense fame, unlawful sexuality, mysterious death, and the splendid music which surrounds it all paint a unique and intriguing portrait of one of the most beloved composers of all time. Can he find a way out of the web of revenge and deceit? Or will Fate have the last word?

~The mysterious death of the nineteenth-century composer Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky is still unsolved to this day, and this unusual novel brings to life the private, illegal trial against him and takes the reader through his astounding life as never before. A realistic adult novel with a stunning ending.

"The confident sweep of the novel includes dozens of secondary characters, with the result being one of the best treatments of Tchaikovsky, fiction or nonfiction, ever written in English. The intelligently-handled theme of pre-20th-century homosexuality will come as a revelation to many readers. Enthusiastically recommended." -The Historical Novel Society reviews
