A student and teacher favorite, Take a Trip to DIVERSE CITY is a rhyming picture book that encourages children of all ages to accept and celebrate one another while gaining an appreciation for cultural diversity. The SPECIAL B5 EDITION includes a CD with national music group B5, (kids love their song Get Your Head in the Game from High School Musical) narrating the book and Shawna Ray singing the book content with added B5 chorus.

Inspired by a true story, this educational children's book begins as some of the kids on the playground in Same City will not let Jacob play because his skin color is different than theirs. Zachary stands with his friend and invites the kids on an imaginary trip to explore Diverse City.

The kids enjoy a variety of savory meals at Spice of Life Cafe, and share in different ways of creating with an array of colors and textures at the Art Spot. They hear different styles and moods of music in the streets and talk about the importance of each individual. When the kids return from their change in perspective, things are much more colorful and the children are free to appreciate their differences and enjoy playing together.

There is a message about Dr. Martin Luther King's dream, discussion questions and a letter to young authors in the back. A portion of the proceeds support unity initiatives.
