The only law school study aid comprised solely of charts, Off the Charts Law Summaries contains a new layout designed to communicate information in a uniform, easy-to-understand format that graphically conveys relationships and patterns. Students learn the specifics of statutes, rules and cases faster than with the current text or outline materials and will more easily see how each fits into the broader subject matter. All five fundamental law school subjects—Civil Procedure, Contracts, Property, Torts and Criminal Law—are covered in a single, comprehensive and cost-effective volume that is portable, convenient and also useful for bar exam preparation.
