- How to convey that you are interested without appearing too flirtatious or too needy
- How to have adventurous, not nerve-wracking, first date
- How to stop pretending to be the person you think someone else will like, and take pride in who you are right now
- How and when to make children part of your plans
- How to let go of the past, bad experiences that are keeping you from enjoying new, good experiences, so that you can learn and make wiser choices in the future
- How to know when to accept, or when and how to graciously decline

Fifty-one ways and places to meet your lover! Fifty-one real stories from people who did it! Ellen Kriedman has collected more true stories about relationships than anyone. Single No More is not just filled with the same "do as I say" advice. Ellen gives advice that is backed up by real stories from real people who tell you in their own words how she changed their lives.
