Book Synopsis: The Book of Grace - Volume I is a channeled text depicting the missing information on the life of Jesus and his life partner, Mary Magdalene. It offers, in parts, an alternative truth to existing accounts of their lives that, over time, may have been skewed, lost in translation, misrepresented or omitted from recorded history. From the time of their meeting to the time of Mary Magdalene's death, you will discover a fascinating account of their lives and the lives of the apostles in this amazingly heartfelt and soulfully written novel. Author Bio: Angela Hickman is a gifted spiritual channeler, psychic and clairvoyant from the Midlands in the United Kingdom. The Book of Grace - Volume I is the first book in a series of three. Angela hopes to carry out humanitarian and environmental projects in the course of channeling the rest of the series. Read Angela's fascinating story, Mary Magdalene's link to the Knights Templar and previews of future books at www.angelicgateways.com.
