John Sommers, an elderly clockmaker, has been found dead in his workshop, shot in the back of the head. With tourist season soon to arrive, the Amish townsfolk of Deer Creek are anxious to have the murder solved and the murderer put behind bars before the story becomes sensationalized, and it's up to Rebecca Troyer to solve the case. With the help of the handsome Jeremiah Fisher, Rebecca begins to put the pieces together. A broken clock and a secret code begin to lead her to the truth—a family tree of greed and guilt. But as she digs deeper into the mystery, she also finds herself tested in ways she never suspected. Can she solve the clockwork murder, and save her relationship at the same time?
