The 2014 FBI Story

The 2014 FBI Story

This latest 2014 edition of The FBI Story, an annual collection of news and feature articles from the FBI public website, FBI.gov, chronicles the FBI's most successful 2014 investigations and operations. These include:

- the disruption of botnet operators responsible for the theft of more than $100 million worldwide;
- nearly $9 billion in penalties levied against one of the largest financial institutions in the world for exploiting the American financial system;
- and a nationwide child exploitation sweep that recovered 168 victims of trafficking.

This volume covers a multi-part series on gangs and serial killers, as well as features on the biometric system known as Next Generation Identification (now fully operational) and the completion of a project to digitize FBI files, including 30 million records and 83 million fingerprint cards.

Additionally, this volume includes historical pieces on Benson House, which played a crucial role in our counterintelligence operations during World War II, as well as the 50th anniversary of the investigation into the disappearance of three civil rights workers in Mississippi in 1964—a case widely known as Mississippi Burning.

Featured articles from the FBI.gov website featured in this full-color volume include:

- New Top 10 Fugitive List to find Murders,
- Briefings about the FBI's latest crime statistics,
- Cybercrime and cybersecurity cases,
- Money-laundering cases,
- Tenth Anniversary of Protecting Children,
- And more
