Tintagel Clara Winter

"In our day, we thought that the bards would sing of us for generations to come, but we did not believe it," writes Morgan le Fay, legend's most fascinating and mysterious enchantress as she introduces her tale. Yet tales of King Arthur and his Round Table have been told and retold throughout generations. This retelling, an installment of the Camelot series, is narrated by the dark Cornish princess Morgan, who watches the court with the eyes of an outsider, though her fate is inseparably tied with the fate of Camelot.
