Good Flag, Bad Flag Ted Kaye

Use five basic principles to create an outstanding flag for your organization, city, tribe, company, family, neighborhood, or even country!

This 16-page full-color booklet, 5.5" x 8.5", distills the concepts of flag design into five basic principles, and shows examples of flags that follow them and flags that disregard them. The publisher (NAVA) has led web-based surveys of state/provincial and city flag designs, confirming the soundness of the basic principles explained in the booklet.
