Victoria Ring was the first bankruptcy paralegal to offer services nationwide through her company, The Lawyer Assistant. The business grew so rapidly that Victoria was unable to maintain it as a one-person operation. When the company was sold to an attorney in Yonkers, NY, Victoria decided to write this book so others could duplicate her efforts and build their own solid business drafting bankruptcy petitions from home. With an average of 4,500 people filing bankruptcy every day, you will be able to cash in on this growing field and save attorneys money when they utilize your services.

This book is also an excellent training manual for paralegals seeking to upgrade their skills as well as attorneys who are just starting a new bankruptcy practice.
