Larry is a second generation fisherman off the coast of Massachusetts. He works hard, brings in big catches and has the respect of his crew and peers. But the world is changing around him and tightening lending policies and government regulations threaten to disrupt the new life he is building. When his accountant suggests a solution to his financial problems, Larry jumps at the chance. Smuggle, by Doug Tinsman, is the story about the impact one decision can have not just on a man, but on an entire community.
